Student Disciplinary Process
Adjudication Flow Chart

Disciplinary Complaint is Submitted

Respondent meets with an administrator to:
- learn about his/her rights and responsibilities, and
- choose from the following options

Respondent accepts responsibility
Asks administrator to determine a sanction at that time
Sanction(s) rendered

Respondent denies responsibility
Asks to meet with a board to determine a sanction
Sanction(s) rendered

Requests a formal hearing before an administrator
Hearing with all parties convened at a later date
Sanction(s) rendered, if responsible

Requests a formal hearing before a board
Hearing with all parties convened at a later date

Appeal Options
Respondents may appeal the finding of responsibility and/or the sanction. The Complainant and Respondent may appeal that there was a conflict of interest or that proper procedures were not followed. All initial appeals go to the University Student Appeals Board. Suspension or Dismissal sanctions may also be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Services.
