Undergraduate Disciplinary Hearing to Determine Additional Sanctions

Heard by: University Academic Integrity Hearing Board

Process to determine additional sanctions for a student accused of academic misconduct and for whom sanctions in addition to, or other than a penalty grade are requested. 1, 2

1. See SRR Articles 6 & 7
2. Either party may consult with the University Ombudsperson at any time during this process.
3. Student’s dean may also call for disciplinary hearing, even if instructor does not.
4. If the student fails to meet with the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education, the Dean of Students Office will refer the case to the UAIHB.
5. University Academic Integrity Hearing Board
6. University Academic Appeal Board

1. Instructor alleges student has cheated, issues a penalty grade and requests student’s dean to call for a disciplinary hearing to consider additional sanctions. 3
   (See Integrity of Scholarship and Grades policy).

2. Student’s Dean notifies the Dean of Students Office of request for disciplinary hearing to consider additional sanctions.

3. The Dean of Students Office notifies student of meeting to discuss disposition of case. 4

4. Student opts for grievance hearing to contest allegation before UAIHB. Disciplinary hearing put on hold

5. Student opts for disciplinary hearing before UAIHB. 5

6. Instructor prevails. Student may appeal to UAAB. 6

8. Decision ruled by UAAB is final.

Student prevails. Call for disciplinary hearing is dismissed.

Student prevails. Call for disciplinary hearing dismissed. Instructor may appeal to UAAB. 6

Student prevails. Call for disciplinary hearing to contest allegation before UAIHB. Disciplinary hearing put on hold

Instructor prevails. Student may appeal to UAAB. 6

Student prevails. Call for disciplinary hearing dismissed.

Student prevails. Call for disciplinary hearing to contest allegation before UAIHB. Disciplinary hearing put on hold

Student prevails. Call for disciplinary hearing dismissed. Instructor may appeal to UAAB. 6

Decision ruled by UAAB is final.

Amended by the MSU Board of Trustees
September 6, 2019.